2. Consultants, agencies, or institutions (individuals or organizations) who have a business or family relation with the Client directly or indirectly.
3. Practices prohibited under the anti-corruption policy of the Government of India and Government of Odisha. The bidders are to be careful so as not to give rise to a situation where there will be any conflict of interest with the Client as this would amount to their disqualification and breach of contract.

15. Disclosure

1. Bidders have an obligation to disclose any actual or potential conflict of interest. Failure to do so may lead to disqualification of the bidder or termination of its contract.
2. Bidders must disclose if they are or have been the subject of any proceedings (such as blacklisting) or other arrangements relating to bankruptcy, insolvency, or the financial standing of the Bidder, including but not limited to appointment of any officer such as a receiver in relation to the Bidder's personal or business matters or an arrangement with creditors, or of any other similar proceedings.
3. Bidders must disclose if they have been convicted of, or are the subject of any proceedings relating to:
 - i. a criminal offence or other serious offence punishable under the law of the land, or where they have been found by any regulator or professional body to have committed professional misconduct.
 - ii. corruption including the offer or receipt of an inducement of any kind in relation to obtaining any contract.
 - iii. failure to fulfil any obligations in any jurisdiction relating to the payment of taxes or social security contributions.

16. Anti-corruption Measure

1. Any effort by Bidder(s) to influence the Client in the evaluation and ranking of financial proposals, and recommendation for award of contract, will result in the rejection of the proposal.
2. A recommendation for award of Contract shall be rejected if it is determined that the recommended bidder has directly, or through an agent, engaged in corrupt, fraudulent, collusive, or coercive practices in competing for the contract in question. In such cases, the Client shall blacklist the bidder either indefinitely or for a stated period, disqualifying it from participating in any related bidding process for the said period.

17. Language of Proposals

The proposal and all related correspondence exchanged between the bidder and the Client shall be written in the English language. Supporting documents and printed literature that are part of the proposal may be in another language provided they are accompanied by an accurate translation of the relevant passages in English with self-certification for accuracy, in which case, for the purposes of interpretation of the Proposal, the translated version shall govern.

18. Cost of Bidding

The Bidder shall bear all costs associated with the preparation and submission of its proposal. The Client shall not be responsible or liable for those costs, regardless of the conduct or outcome of the bidding process. Bidder/s is/are not allowed to submit more than one proposal under the selection process. Alternate bids are also not allowed.

19. Legal Jurisdiction

All legal disputes are subject to the jurisdiction of Civil Court of Rayagada only.

20. Governing Law and Penalty Clause

The schedule given for delivery is to be strictly adhered to in view of the strict time schedule. Any unjustified and unacceptable delay in delivery shall render the bidder liable for liquidated damages and thereafter the Client holds the option for cancellation of the contract for pending activities and complete the same from any other agency. The Client may deduct such sum from any money from their hands due or become due to bidder. The payment or deduction of such sums shall not relieve the bidder from his obligations and liabilities under the contract. The rights and obligations of the Client and the bidder under this contract will be governed by the prevailing laws of Government of India / Government of Odisha. Failure on bidder's part to furnish the deliverables as per the agreed timeline will enforce a penalty @ 1% per week subject to maximum of 10% of the total contract value. The amount will be deducted from the subsequent payment. In addition, the PBG amount shall also be forfeited. The decision of the authority placing the contract, whether the delay in development has taken place on account of reasons attributed to the bidder shall be final.

21. Confidentiality

Information relating to evaluation of proposals and recommendations concerning awards shall not be disclosed to the bidders who submitted the proposals or to other persons not officially concerned with the process, until the publication of the award of contract. The undue use by any Consultant of confidential information related to the process may result in rejection of its proposal and may be subject to the provisions of the Client's antifraud and corruption policy. During the execution of the assignment except with prior written consent of the Client, the consultant or its personnel shall not at any time communicate to any person or entity any confidential information acquired in the course of the contract.

22. Amendment of the RFP Document

At any time before submission of proposals, the Client may amend the RFP by issuing an addendum through NIC Rayagada website. Any such addendum will be binding on all the bidders. To give bidders reasonable time in which to take an addendum into account in preparing their proposals, the Client may, at its discretion, extend the deadline for the submission of the proposals.

23. Client's right to accept any proposal, and to reject any or all proposal/s

The Client reserves the right to accept or reject any proposal, and to annul or amend the bidding / selection / evaluation process and reject all proposals at any time prior to award of contract award, without assigning any reason there of and thereby incurring any liability to the bidders.

24. Copyright, Patents and Other Proprietary Rights

Zilla Parishad, Rayagada shall be entitled to all intellectual property and other proprietary rights including but not limited to patents, copyrights, and trademarks, about Documents and other materials which bear a direct relation to or are prepared or collected in consequence or during the execution of this contract. At the Client's request, the Consultant shall take all necessary steps to submit them to the Client in compliance with the requirements of the contract.

25. Appointment of Personnel

The key professionals to be deployed under this contract are expected to be dedicated for the entire period as desired by the client.

The Selected agency shall conduct the necessary interviews and background checks of the candidate which are to be deployed as per the position given by the client and submit the list of successful candidates to the Client for approval and shall deploy the manpower only after due approval from the client.

26. Force Majeure

For purpose of this clause, "Force Majeure" means an event beyond the control of the agency and not involving the agency's fault or negligence and not foreseeable. Such events may include, but are not restricted, wars or revolutions, fires, floods, riots, civil commotion, earthquake, epidemics or other natural disasters and restriction imposed by the Government or other bodies, which are beyond the control of the agency, which prevents or delays the execution of the order by the agency. If a Force Majeure situation arises, the agency shall promptly notify Client in writing of such condition, the cause thereof and the change that is necessitated due to the condition. Until and unless otherwise directed by the Client in writing, the Agency shall continue to perform its obligations under the contract as far as is reasonably practical and shall seek all reasonable alternative means for performance not prevented by the Force Majeure event. The agency shall advise Client in writing, the beginning, and the end of the above causes of delay, within seven days of the occurrence and cessation of the Force Majeure condition. In the event of a delay lasting for more than one month, if arising out of causes of Force Majeure, Client reserve the right to cancel the contract without any obligation to compensate the agency in any manner for whatsoever reason.

27. Settlement of Disputes

The Client and the Consultant shall make every effort to resolve amicably, by direct informal negotiation, any disagreement or dispute arising between them under or arising from or in connection with the Contract within Thirty (30) days from the commencement of such informal negotiation. All dispute resolution proceedings shall be held at Rayagada, Odisha, and the language of such proceedings and that of all documents and communications between the parties shall be in English. Collector-cum-Chief Executive Officer, Zilla Parishad, Rayagada will be the final authority to resolve the dispute arising between and the Client and the Consultant.
